Dear Mr. Ulusoy!

Consulting agency UkrAgroConsult expresses deep appreciation of our cooperation and your professional contribution to the success of the 18th International Conference "BLACK SEA GRAIN - 2021" as a Speaker.

We believe that building a powerful network between the main agricultural players is the key for agribusiness to thrive worldwide in today's turbulent time. Objective market analysis and effective communication become more important than ever for adjusting business strategies to the new reality.

Being a premiere event of the global and Black Sea agri market, 'BLACK SEA GRAIN-2021' brought together 300+ participants from 30 countries both in person and digitally, allowing to meet and enhance professional exchange.

Hope for further fruitful cooperation for the benefit of agricultural business in the Black Sea region and globally.

Best regards,

Sergey Feofilov
